

Mr. D. V. Chame
CEO & Promoter
DVC Process Technologists

Mr DV Chame is a Post-graduate in Organic Chemistry and Industrial Management having diverse experience in Vegetable oil processing & Project Industry and Petroleum Industry with exposure to various related projects.

He is the founder and CEO of DVC Process Technologists, operating since 2001

Under his leadership and guidance, DVC Process Technologists shaped into one of the leading Edible Oil refinery suppliers globally. DVC Process Technologists is the Pune based OEM engaged in supply of projects for Fats & Oil - extraction and processing as well as byproducts processing. DVC is a Process Technology company providing know how as well as turnkey solutions right from scratch to commercial production for the Industry. Also, pioneer in providing PLC / DCS based process automation solutions for small to large processing facility and related material handling and product storage tanks automation.

DVC is the first company offering PLC based process automation solutions to small and medium capacity oil refining projects in INDIA and making it affordable to the Indian processors.

DVC also supplies Oleo-chemicals and Bio-diesel Production Technology turnkey solutions.