

Mr Vinay Mittal
Product Portfolio Manager – High Energy Efficient LV Motors
Siemens Limited, Thane

Mr Vinay Mittal has over 18 years of extensive experience in Sales, Business Development, and Product Management. Mr Vinay Mittal is a seasoned expert in the field of energy-efficient technologies. He plays a key role in driving product innovation, development, and market growth for his organization. In his current role, Mr Vinay is responsible for managing the complete product lifecycle, from conceptualization and design to implementation and sales strategy. His in-depth technical expertise in motor efficiency and energy solutions is complemented by a sharp business acumen, allowing him to align product offerings with market needs and emerging trends. Vinay has been instrumental in advancing sustainable solutions, contributing to company leadership in delivering cutting-edge energy-efficient products that meet global energy standards. Throughout his career, Vinay has demonstrated a strong ability to build and maintain customer relationships, formulate long-term business strategies, and deliver value-driven solutions. His knack for understanding complex customer requirements and offering tailored solutions has been crucial in driving the successful growth and market penetration of several product portfolios.